Hallowe'en Party

The Junior League had a royal time last night at the Methodist parsonage, when Mrs. Barnett who is the superintendent of the league, assisted by Mrs. Gross, gave them a regular old-fashioned Hallowe'en party.

When the guests arrived they were immediately ushered into a tent, where three old witches (Misses Mary Lane, Lucile Gissendaner and Edna Clark) initiated them, after which they were each tagged. No guest could take part in the numerous stunts without a tag. There were big tubs of water full of apples, which the children tried to get without touching with their hands. Each child was given a string a yard long, with a marshmallow on one end. They put the string in their mouths and without touching it had to draw up the string till they got the candy. Masters Tom Barnes and A. T. Thomas drew theirs up at the same time and were awarded the prize, a box of marshmallows.

In one corner of the yard was a big bonfire, and the witch, Miss Eloise Bouvier had a big witch pot full of hot chocolate. Soon the merry crowd of young people were all sitting around this pot, and in this fashion the refreshments were served.

Those present in costume were the following:

Chivalette Smith, Willie Mae Lang, Rhoda Thomas and Annie Rooney, fairies; Edna Clark, Jimmie Cox and Robert Spencer, ghosts; John Cook and George Akin, farmers; Frances Polly, masked; Tom Barnes and Bob Simmons, clowns; Ralph Simmons and Jack Robertson, sailors; Mildred Crosby, Estelle Howell, Marion Melfert, Charlie Howell and Robert Lee Howell, clowns; Eloise Bouvier and Sarah Rentz, witches; Rappley Cook, fairy; J. W. Crosby and Claud Barnett, as George Washington; A. T. Thomas, cowboy; Mary Lane, Lucile Gissendaner, Swedish girls; William Barnett, girl; Albert Frampton, Lillian Livingston, Ulainee Barnett, James Brinson, Indian; Helen Leitner, gypsy; Leland Rooney, Indian; Paul Rentz, sailor; Charles Brown, clown; Elizabeth Bennett, witch fairy; Myrtle Hall, masked.

Those who were present but not masked were the following: Duncan Elliott, Tom Sexton, Wilbur Gary, Peter Liddon, John Bouvier, Mary Rentz, Margaret Sexton, Margaret Gary, Jewel Bridges, Lawton Leitner, Fanita Cobb, Ruth Howell and Gerald Bouvier. Many of the mothers were also present.

A Jolly Hallowe'en Party

The Ocala House garden was simply alive last night with ghosts and witches and all sorts of curious people. Many of these ghosts came from other Hallowe'en parties, making a large and comical gathering.

At the entrance Mr. Ralph Cullen and Mr. Bob Chace sold tickets—the "Whites," in whose honor the party was planned, were allowed in free. Japanese lanterns were suspended from every possible place, showing queer shadows on this spooky party.

Mrs. Moorhead and Miss Carlisle served punch from a big tub and the usual apple performances took place, the boys ducking girls who were so risky as to try for apples in the water.

The disguised boys and girls caused much merriment and excitement, especially one farmer boy who kissed a pretty girl which caused some indignation, until the farmer in overalls turned out to be Miss Clifton Sexton.

Mr. Louis Long Jr. as a girl played many tricks on his friends, and the shrieks and laughter coming from this party testified to its great success.

The following were masked: Miss Gertie Brigrance, a gypsy; Miss Lucile Gissendaner, Tipperary girl; Miss Mary Lane, Swedish maiden; Miss Jessie Dehon, a boy; Miss Ruth Warner, Puritan girl; Miss Maudie Marsh, dancing girl.

After the ball at the Commercial Club last night, Misses Marian Dewey and Ellen Stripling entertained a small party of friends in honor of Mr. Harold Ford and Mr. George Harmony of the University of Florida, who came over for the ball. Besides the honor guests, Misses Hope Robinson and Hester Dewey and Messrs. Charlie and John Chazal and Norton Davis were invited. A dainty salad course with hot chocolate was served.

The Fanny R. Gary chapter of the Children of the Confederacy met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Charles Flippen and during the afternoon the following officers were elected: President, Miss Louise Spencer; vice president, Miss Jeanette Culverhouse; secretary, Miss Lourene Spencer; treasurer, Miss Caroline Harriss.

Messrs. R. C. and W. M. Sutherland, two good citizens of Polk county,

The reading club will meet with Miss Minnie Gamsby Tuesday afternoon at 3:30. The lesson will be the first and third chapter of Civil Government.

Mrs. W. H. Coleman will entertain her Sunday school class with a Hallowe'en picnic this afternoon at her home on the Lake Weir road. Mrs. W. W. Clyatt will take this congenial little crowd out in her car. Those in the class are Misses Rhoda Thomas, Mary Lane, Lucille Gissendaner, Jewel Bridges, Ulainee Barnett and Elizabeth Bennett.

Among the latest arrivals in the city are Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Phillips and daughter of Chanute, Kan. They are at present located at the Thompson residence on Fort King avenue. Mr. Phillips owns a tract of Marion county land and is here to look it over and in all probability locate permanently with us.

Miss Helen Killebrew is the lovely little hostess this afternoon entertaining a few of her friends at the Temple Theater. After seeing the pictures they will go to the Court Pharmacy and be treated to refreshments. Those invited are Chivallette Smith, Alice Cullen, Nellie Wallis, Charlotte Chazal, Caroline Peyser, Mildred Bullock, Margaret Hocker, Mary Fleming Rawls, Virginia Neely, Frances McIver, Sidney Cullens, Elizabeth Bennett and Marion Melfert. Miss Helen is eleven years old today. Mrs. F. E. McClane is seeing that each one has a merry time.

Miss Gamsby, the librarian, requests the Star to announce that the hours at the Carnegie library will hereafter be from 9 to 11 a. m., and 4 to 8 p. m.

MOTHER'S DAY IN THE SCHOOLS

Attention is called to the law designating the first Friday in November as Mother's Day. This does not make it a holiday but provides that there shall be exercises appropriate to the celebration of this day in honor of our mothers.

At the suggestion of the state superintendent I most cordially suggest that a portion of this Friday afternoon be devoted to special exercises well adapted to impress upon the pupils and visitors the sacredness of the word mother.

Very respectfully yours,
J. H. Brinson, Supt.
